Orlando Youth Empowerment Summit (OYES) Sponsorship Opportunities

The City of Orlando in collaboration with Zebra Coalition and LGBTQ+ community organizations is proud to announce the 2018 Orlando Youth Empowerment Summit (OYES) that is going to be held on Saturday, October 19, 2019 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Valencia College, West Campus, Event Center, Orlando.

OYES is a day of free dynamic and interactive workshops for LGBTQ+ youth, young adults and parents. Since its inception in 2014, OYES has been supported by Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer, District 4 City Commissioner Patty Sheehan and LGBTQ+ community organizations to assure all communities feel welcomed, respected and valued regardless of, race, cultural backgrounds, place of origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression or disability.

Becoming a sponsor of the summit will allow your organization to obtain the following benefits:

- Reach our growing LGBTQ+ community, including young LGBTQ+ leaders
- Connect with more than 200 attendees and community and corporate partners committed to preserving an inclusive and accepting environment in our city, organizations and workplaces
- Create awareness on your corporate inclusion and cultural competence values while enhancing the engagement of your organization with our LGBTQ+ community
- Increase branding by promoting and distributing samples of products and services
